SUBMITTED TO THE COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND MEMBERS OF THE ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

As Director of the Division of Insurance, and on behalf of the entire division staff, I proudly submit to you the 53rd Annual Insurance Report for the 1990 calendar year, as provided for in AS 21.06.110.

The report provides baseline data on Alaska's insurance market and the industry's activities here. Some of the significant findings include:

> Property/casualty direct written premiums went up 3.4% from 1989. Surplus lines premiums went down from 1989 by 11%.
>
> An increasing premium volume has had a corresponding impact in the collection of premium taxes which increased 7.7%, with a total received in fiscal year 1991 of $24,434,506.
> The report indicates that insurance companies are not investing as much funds in Alaska as the previous year. Investments have decreased from $3,205,819,000 in 1989 to $2,840,584,000 in 1990.

1991 was a very good year for the division and for the Alaskan consumers we protect and serve. We have made the division much more "user friendly." For example, we have reduced the turnaround time on resolving consumer complaints by half. In addition, we have erased an almost four year backlog in Certificate of Authority applications (insurance company licenses), and achieved a thirty day turnaround. Alaska has gone from the worst in the country to the best.

We have made significant progress toward national accreditation. This will do more to secure good insurance markets for Alaska residents and businesses than any other single factor. We are now on track for a late 1992 or early 1993 accreditation.

We are proud of our accomplishments this year. All of us at the division thank you for the support we have received from the department, the administration, the Legislature, and the public. We will do our best for you in 1992.

Respectfully submitted,

David J. Walsh, Director

AUTOMOBILE ASSIGNED RISK PLAN

Alaska statutes require that all drivers must be able to pay (to be financially responsible) for damages resulting from the ownership or operation of an automobile. The simplest method for someone to meet this requirement is by purchasing an automobile insurance policy.

The Automobile Assigned Risk Plan was introduced in Alaska in 1959. The purpose of the Plan was to serve as a market of last resort for those people that, for whatever reason, were unable to purchase automobile insurance in the voluntary market.

The Assigned Risk Plan chart on the following page shows the number of assignments to the Plan for the years 1960 through 1990.

Volume in the Plan was rather light during the pre-pipeline years of 1960 through 1975. The volume of traffic in the Plan picked up significantly in the mid to late 1970s due to an influx of people working on the oil pipeline as well as the heavy volume of commercial vehicles assigned to the Plan. As the work on the pipeline began to wind down and those workers begin to leave the state, the number of assignments correspondingly dropped to less that 1,000 in 1984.

In 1985 mandatory automobile liability insurance became law in Alaska with a sunset date of midnight December 31, 1989. At that time, according to Alaska Department of Public Safety figures, approximately 25% of the motoring public in Alaska was driving without insurance. With the advent of mandatory insurance, the population in the Assigned Risk Plan rose once again as uninsured people could not find coverage in the voluntary market. Assignments to the Plan peaked at 4,838 in 1986 before assuming a gradual decline. There were two significant reasons for this decline. One, people in the Plan began to qualifying for the voluntary market. Two, because of the sunset date of mandatory insurance (December 31, 1989) people began to cancel their insurance policies and again drive while uninsured. The 1990 Alaska legislature reinstated the mandatory insurance law effective June 14, 1989. Once again the numbers in the Plan begin to rise as people realized that they were again required to have insurance. After the sharp rise in the Plan population in 1990 the figures for the first half of 1991 have dropped by 20.9%. The mandatory insurance law sunsets again in 1994. It will be interesting to see if the same pattern of peaks and valleys repeats itself as 1994 and the repeal of mandatory insurance approaches once again.
